Hey Jeffrey,

Hope all is well with you. Still in Florida? [REDACTED] is dwelling between hot summer days and freezing fall nights and can't really decide which direction to take.

Meanwile, my plans to start Sotheby's Institute 2010 are being recasted. Since the Stockholm University administration are bureaucrats and red-tapists, I'm not able to get my degree certificate in time to apply for the only [REDACTED] scholarship worth applying for.

Of course, this won't stop me from coming to New York.

My new plan is to look for an interesting internship position - either at one of the auction houses (Sotheby's, Christies, Phillips...), a museum (Guggenheim, Moma, Met...), a gallery or such. Any ideas?

As I told you earlier, I will be in New York September 12th-19th. Do you think there is any possibility at all that I could stay on 67th street? (it is 67th street isn't it?) My girlfriend [REDACTED] (also a BBB) will be in New York with me. I would be eternally grateful of course.

Anyway, I'm so sorry you're in Florida while I'm in town...

[REDACTED]
