Thank you Jeffrey, nice to hear from you finally, I'm pleased to hear you like my company/website and approve!

I'm sorry to hear about the apartments and all that the American government has put you through...

Ayahuasca works best in it's homeland of South America because of the shamans, ceremony, music etc (hard to explain) + I am just one person with limitations (funding wise) so I am just relying on bookings to expand the business slowly.. So I want to focus on the Amazon retreat for now because I have a close relationship with the people there (which really helps in these kind of places). There is a special ceremony happening in Colombia in March which I might add to the program depending how things go over the coming months and Kumba Mehla starting in India in feb 2010 (happens every 12 years only) but that will be hard to organise as there are thousands of people attending and not a relaxing retreat but more of spiritual journey..

Now that I've finally launched I am now able to start contacting adventure travel agencies and I want to focus on singles trips to bring people of the same mindset together :) I am offering therapists/yoga teachers, healers etc a commission £150 per booking if they send me a customer , as word of mouth really helps when people know you .. so I would appreciate it if you pls forward my company website to your contacts.

I hope you will be able to make a trip out soon when u get back..

Keep in touch

Eman x

Hi Jeffrey,

How are you? I think of you often and hope you are well and nearly at the end of your stay in Florida.. Pls let me know how you are doing..

Yesterday I launched my new company and website <http://symbiosisplanet.org> and I have a lot of work ahead of me, marketing wise.. I will be leaving to the States soon as the American market is my main target (geographically closer to Peru and the Americans are very much into the alternative, yoga, healing movement) and my first journeys are starting next month, I still have so much to organise as time is short and I need to get bookings.

I was wondering if I could ask for your help as I will be NY to start promoting my company there and was wondering if I could stay in your apartment pls? (where I stayed before) it will also help me to reduce my costs not having to fly back and forth to the UK all the time.

I look forward to hearing from you.
Thanks and best,
Eman x
