Jeffrey –

Now that I have stayed up half the night thinking about your arm rest, we tore apart the back seat of my Mercedes and put my plan into action.

I still have some tweaking to do with regard to the structural bracket(s) that I want to create to tie the arm rest to, but if you agree that this is the goal, I can work out what I need to and present it to Engineering and Certification to see if they will accept this design modification to the divan.

I want to keep this balling rolling fwd as time is certainly of the essence, sp please call me to discuss.

Sincerely,

Eric Roth
