I am dissappointed that you chose not to come. I re-read your emails and wonder if you are on medication. The omission of my telling you , that I would behave in a way that refected by love is telling. My over the top reaction to the email event , which I have apologized for, and deeply regret for many reasons ,has little to excuse it. The fact that you have still not explained to me how you expect not to live up to your side of agreements and still maintain all the benefits as if you had. I have never threatend to put you on the street, In fact I spent many hours asking what you thought would be fair. I reminded you that i would be guided by the fact that i love you. You have wanted for little , at least materially. I have asked that I speak to your shrink, to help me communicate the need for you to contribute, as contrasted with the no matter what you do , you expect the same result.

Good morning. I just got this email and it still doesn't say you wouldn't start a fight so I'll stay here. I couldn't make it to dinner on such short notice anyway. Happy Thanksgiving.
