I don't want there to be any misunderstandings,,My gifts, kindness and interest in your success do not mean I am in any way interested in an affair or a relationship with you. I only ask you to come visit because I need an extra assistant when my girlfriend is not here and you help out,,I am in love with [REDACTED] and I want to be fair and not give you any wrong ideas. You should focus on your boyfriend.

I know and I really appreciate so so much everything you are doing for me! And I would be more than happy to do something for you. Did I do or say anything wrong?
