virtual currency has many meanings.. if I say boris you can live in my house for free. . did i create a currency. would it change if i gave you permission to trade with others for things of value, my room was empty now it had value. I think we should find a theme or two, and stick to those people at davos, code breaking. military, hackers. , bio viruses . bankers and pols-boring.

Agree - the time is ripe.

I like George Soros - he has proven track record to be on the target more time than not.

I did not even know of that Special Drawing Rights serving as a "virtual currency" with a value set by a basket of real currencies. Will look into that in more details.
