We once talked about dream logic, cognitive continuum etc; here's the latest brief statement of the idea, as it appeared (w/ nice pix) in frankfurter az last Sun, & the actual English.

Don't want to misrepresent this work: it's a v controversial, far-left (or far-something) approach. I've been arguing it with a first-rate mainstream AI thinker at Yale once a week (on Fri) literally for years. Lit people see it far more readily than tech people.

Yesterday my big-pic net predictions ran in faz (frankfurt); mainly this is about time-based IR, esp grafs 13-25 & 32. Engl version (first atch) will show up eventually, but the Germans go first. They're excited about this sort of thing. --David
