

To: Robert Critton
From: William Riley / Kevin Black
Date: July 15, 2009
Re: Epstein / [REDACTED] – Neighborhood canvas of former residence, [REDACTED]
File: 8577R

The answers to interrogatories from [REDACTED] claim that she lived at 151 Bilboa Street, Royal Palm Beach, FL from 1998 – 2005. Property records do indicate that [REDACTED]. acquired the single family residence in 1984. In November of 2004 they sold the property to the current residents, [REDACTED]. It should be noted that the street name is also known as [REDACTED].

On Friday, July 3, 2009, Investigator Kevin Black walked around the former neighborhood of [REDACTED] and her family. When residents were found, Black identified himself as a private investigator and asked them if they knew the [REDACTED] family and in particular [REDACTED].

[REDACTED]: No one answered the door.

[REDACTED]: Mr. Jonathan McDonald advised that he knew the [REDACTED] family casually and that they moved away several years ago. He said the [REDACTED]', including their teen daughter, were "ok people" and caused no disturbances. He did not know the teen's name was [REDACTED].

[REDACTED]: No one answered the door.

[REDACTED]: No one answered the door.

██████████: No one answered the door.

██████████: No one answered the door.

██████████: Mr. Nathan Brice advised that ██████ and his wife were quiet people. He remembers their teen daughter was a soccer player but nothing else. Brice said he and his wife did not socialize with the ██████ family.

██████████: No one answered the door.

██████████: No one answered the door.