Our page didn't have any private info on you. Not your real email. Nothing. Just your vetted photo and links to your websites, and so, security would not have been compromised. There were no friends. Nothing.

The uber hacker is coming over tomorrow about the other sites, but he faces "life imprisonment" if he personally does this stuff again...and he has spent enough time (three years) in jail, not house arrest.

I understand that. You can't remove facebook pages that way. Your attackers put these pages up. They are not going to respond to a letter from me, and they put them up anonymously.

And, just so that it is clear, I removed only the positive facebook site that we created last night. I could not remove the other facebook sites created on you, which were nasty, which this page was going to knock out. Now, on facebook, those sites will come up, and there is nothing to replace them.

you want me to remove it? Really? It only has links to your website and photo. Did you look at it?

I don't quite understand why you are so against it, as it is minimalist and you don't have to do anything with it, and it would knock stuff out, having just your photo, and links to the websites. NO friends listed, no friends added, nothing, and would replace the one currently up there that is against you.

But, if you want it gone, it will go right away.

I hope you are happy with what we managed to do with the wiki page, which was quite a task of hacking.

We created a facebook page for you with very specific privacy settings, and showing information and links that only we want to show.

To view it, and see it how the public will see it, and we have a certain hacking program, which will boost it to the front page of google, knocking out some of the other bad stuff. Just have your assistant search under Jeffrey Epstein when she is logged into her FB account. It will take a while for the search engines to find it. If she can't find it this way, have her do it under a false email account search that we set up:

jeffreyepstein7@gmail.com

No one can post anything on this site. And, it contains only the information, photo, and other stuff that we wish people to see.

Also, while she is there, and I think she is friends with me on facebook, go look at my own profile page, and check out the photos from our Celebration of Mind event. you might find them fun.
