Davutoglu (Turkey) and HBJ (Qatar) are friends. Know some of the others, but not as well. Davutoglu is a Kissinger type thinker. Master chess player. HBJ is a trader, money burns in his brain. Was once with him in some new model of Porsche. Asked him what kind of car it was and he said a Porsche. I said that I knew the Porsche line and it wasn't a Porsche. He said it was the prototype. I asked how he got the prototype. He said "I bought it". I said they don't sell the prototype. He said: "No, I bought Porsche" ... and two days later he did.
