I agree but the tickets are now in the individual names. The only way to make sure that the tickets are used for the purpose of coming to the May meeting is to rebook them now on the dates you choose. I need to get the dates from you ASAP both for the purpose of rebooking the tickets and for the new Ritx contract.

I suggest we cancel all flights and tickets... What will happen is that the value of these tickets will remain, minus the change fees, for use at other times... The down side is that these tickets will remain with the ticketed passengers, so anyone could use the value of these tickets to book another flight another time to another place..

Here is the penalty info from Monica at ADTRAV. We don't know when or where the meeting will be held, but our tickets are valid for one year. See below...

Moon - non-refundable $150 change fee for the Delta flights and $150 change fee for the Continental flights
Schulze - non-refundable $150 change fee for the Delta flights and $150 change fee for the Continental flights
Krauss - non-refundable $150 change fee
Anbar - non-refundable- $150 change fee for the American flights and $150 change fee for the Delta flights
Van der Leeuw - Refundable
Rillero - Non-refundable $150.00 change fee
Hill - Non-refundable $150.00 change fee
Mather - Non-refundable $150 change fee
Bennett - Non-refundable $150 change fee
Total - $1,650

All of the above that have a change fee, that is in addition to the new fare if there is any extra cost in the new fare versus the original fare.

So to change, they would pay the change fee plus an difference in fare increase if any.

Good morning to you both. As you are both aware by now, we have had to cancel our November meeting in St. Thomas. Although our invitees have been instructed to contact me about reimbursements, I planned on handing them over to you, Cecile, as no money passed through me.

If each of you could let me know what I should be telling our invitees in terms of what to expect by way of reimbursement (if they self-financed) or in terms of any restrictions they have on changing their reservations, I'd appreciate it.

Thanks,
Penelope
