First of all, they are definitely not "the same." So, let's us get our facts right, otherwise, we go down the wrong assumptions. Your charity site is up on lage one of google search. Jeffreyepstein.org

We need to immediately load the content for that, which I am waiting for, from [REDACTED].

Then, we can load the rest onto it.

Science site is on page 3, and when we add the links today, and Frances Arnold's interview with you, and project zero, and goodworks, this should bump it up to page one. then, it is a matter of tweeking the rest during the week to get rid of the rest.

within 15 minutes, exactly!

So, we put them back, and poof, they come off again, and so we put them back, and sometimes they stick, it just is a matter of how gets tired out first.

They have hacker names. Meaningless. i have to get some hackers on it to see who their real profiles are. i believe we did this before, and a bunch of them come from the the Palm beach area, especially prosecutor's office.
