I agree. I don't know how many of these people use skype (ivory tower academics aren't necessarily up on the latest technological communication widgets), but I am sure there are ways to get the interviews recorded and transcribed. Also, I think this whole approach of you doing it will make the whole thing much better, and perhaps you may even enjoy this sort of thing. :-)

30 minutes is plenty of time.

Jeff,

I am very reluctant to do any more "pseudo" interviews. As you say, it is my voice, not yours. Now, I do know that you are excellent at asking interesting, penetrating questions. So, how about this.... I will conduct the interviews on your behalf, but you supply the questions. I need no less than 15 questions from each subject. Please put the questions in a form that is accessible. I would like to conduct interviews with the following individuals, are personal friends, and will easily grant me the time, if I ask. this is a start. Obviously, my list goes on, but these would be interesting interviews. Can you do this?

Kip Thorne

John Schwartz

Michael Douglas

Frances Arnold (I would like to put this back into your voice)

Christof Koch

Patrick Cavanagh (vision scientist you met at Harvard)
