Jeffrey!

Still major outage since this morning affecting Internet and phone and cell over most of Malibu and much of LA also!

we went out today to try to email and were met with full repeater outage and all phones and lights and internet connectivity along wide corridor affecting 100,000 people in our local including us ! :- (Phone and electric people coming over to house so one of us had to stay in ...

I have NOW after struggling with brown power that is in the section with our internet and phone connectivity STILL out -

I have driven into Sant Monica to get urgent email and make som urgent calls and write to YOU !

I am now doing this in about 20mins from now -

REALLY SORRY for out of control delay! :- (- a horribly frustrating day but hopefully will be better soooooon - Al also was in the middle of doing the breakdown for you of the Internet stuff when this horror show happened. He will send it just as soon as the internet gets reconnected, but he really hopes the funds to "Michae" and his global team were wired, as it did not hit his bank today - Pls can you sms my cell phone on [REDACTED] to let me know about this as Al has no cell, or call Al direct on the house phone at [REDACTED] as that is the only thing working right now on fading battery.

OK now i'm working on the WEF thing to you shortly.

Best,

Isabel
