Tomorrow Edgar Foster Daniels (the Citizen Kane of opera--and I mean in every sense of the word, including wheel chair) wants to see me perhaps before going to the Met. Its unsure, as usual what would be good for him, but I'm hoping to convince him that Steve's is more congenial than the other choices for pre-opera. Can you give me Steve's contact # in case? I am talking to them now, figuring it out. Edgar is the single biggest donor to the opera world--throughout the world. Anyway, just tryin' to make the most good for the most people...:) xox[redacted]
