Subject: Report #139: Confused and concerned

Date: Sun, 19 Sep 2010 16:21:24 +0000

Hallo kids!

When I volunteered for our Marhaba Week which is the week the students are arriving and we're trying to get them settled, little did I know I would be standing on the street in a Barney-purple t-shirt with "Marhaba" written in various languages hailing cabs for parents. No wonder I'm still single...

The arrival of the students is what we've been working for for so long! I feel confused and concerned all at once. Seeing the students makes it all worth it. It's amazing to be part of this.

When even my 73 year old boss says that Abu Dhabi is boring, then you understand what it's like to live here...

I know it's a university, but do we really need to have all these kids here...?

I started eating hair vitamins since I I'm going fat and bald like anyone moving to the UAE. That's just the curse of moving here. The vitamins are however making me grow hair everywhere like a monkey!

Cheers!
