I have talked with my team:

Architecture

Jorge spoke with Gary today as planned...the red lines will be picked up by tomorrow ...the revised set will be sent out to Doug for final review tomorrow...I will review this before Doug.

Construction documents for the kitchen will be completed by Friday.

Jorge will create 3d renderings in grey scale to show the topographic situation and start to place pool and new building structures for a review with us next week....

Decorating

we will redraw the cabana's with new furniture in elevation format as per the dimensions .We are looking for lamps

'desks .desk chair , Chinese style side tables and present this at the next meeting... We will price the carpets with Sacco (grid with dot pattern) in the meantime we will order the carpet that we presented last week (drawings will be sent for dimension approval)...this was agreed to at today's meeting.

Per the meeting today 3d for the rooms were NOT required, just plans and elevations...PLEASE CONFIRM

Note: the side tables are too small to cover the door widths so we will custom make them as well as the RL bed...we will get a price for this by tomorrow

Please get back to us with a meeting date to review all this

thanks
