Hey J,

How are you?

Guess what?? I got a new job! I'll be working for this company called [REDACTED] ([REDACTED]), starting on the 27th of this month!!! The company is a subsidiary of the British company, [REDACTED]. Ever hear of them?

Any who, I might need your help.... I have had a lump in my breast for a long time now and my gyno decided at my last visit that I needed an ultra sound.. Got that done last Friday and the results came back as it was "an area of concern" and ordered for a biopsy.... I'm so nervous... I know I am young and all... but its scary.. I'm losing my health insurance for a month at the end of this month, so it'll start anew in November... I'm rushing to get the referral authorized for this biopsy but its getting close to the end of the month and these idiots are slow.... If I can get this biopsy done before it's to late... Can you recommend someone if this biopsy comes back with a funky result?

I think its ironic this is happening to me especially after the prior possibility of me working for Eva's Breast Care Center....

Let me know if you can help!

I hope you are well Jeffrey. I miss you.

xoxo
