I just r'cd an email from my broker that the contract is fully executed. Whew! I'm glad I got this done before the tax credit deadline. I'm getting excited about the new place but i also realize that i still have to pass the interview. Last summer, a wise man and good friend advised me to be optimistic and I'm trying to practise his advice. [REDACTED] left for [REDACTED] last night for [REDACTED]. He is doing really well and hasn't had any alcohol for the last 3 months. He is very happy and looks great. He's much more present and open about his feelings. I'm enjoying being with him more than ever. If you want to check out his website, go to [REDACTED]. He told me last week that he wants to send you a [REDACTED] because he appreciates all that you have done for the both of us. I was pleasantly surprised I gave him your Florida address. I hope he follows through when he gets back. I'm online now looking for a summer job. If you hear of anything, please let me know.

Thanks for a lifetime.
