I drew this Abram just put it in the computer, I liked the sloped back and the seat as a slab away from the back you lean against, with the arms and the support not a block. No problem I can put it up on a shelf, how high off the floor? My steam room at home is only one shelf but I don't do steam, I did not really like the two levels it looked heavy but its ok we'll put it up!

no no no.. the person who drew this, does not understand steam rooms. please.. the bench must be up on a balcony , otherwise the steam is always only above your head, Please only use experienced people or have someone ask questions.. we will save a lot of time

Fax at home is 1 [REDACTED]! All best, look at the sketches. The marble bench in the steam is like a senator's bench in Rome. We can use glass only in the main room, elsewhere we have MUST use tassos which is white marble, glass is not good in heat and unbelievably slippery. Fax me!! All best, Robert
