The 29 came from the original serial number they were giving him, I got it pushed to a higher number because I thought it added to the value. As for the original 40 it comes together as follows approx 27 going to the middle east. Another middle eastern customer has 2 on order. As for the remaining approx 10 they break down as corp NE ships. Beside the one to JE also have pending deals to Merck (2) Prudential (1) Mass Mutual (2) IBM (1) UTC (2) Sikorsky demo (1)

As I indicated I do not believe the special pricing will be extended beyond these clients (which are to jumpstart the corp. market). No offshore clients or non NE are factored into these numbers

Hope this answers the questions
