Brian's children's book is about to become an opera, with Philip Glass writing the music. Meanwhile, they're going gang-busters on the World Science Festival.

I started spending time today on national lab day... Huge hands-on learning initiative for K-12. I'm wondering if Cecile would be interested in getting the USVI involved? I'm not sure I have her latest email address.

LOVE being at 301. Still know the doorman - and they remember me after all these years.... comfortable, easy and Lesley is a gem.

Thanks so much! Really appreciate how easy this makes it to be in NY.
