I spoke to Nicolas about Haiti yesterday, He is on standby to take his helicopter for extraction mission. Haiti does not have fuel at the airport for private aircraft or helicopters, only military aircraft are getting fuel. The only private aircraft that are getting permission to land are ones that are capable of round trip fuel to thier destinations, without the need to take on fuel in Haiti. Nicolas told me that Jose Maltinado, who is a charter operator in San Juan, has been going into Haiti with his King Air, round trip price is $11,800.00 from San Juan.

Jose's # is [REDACTED] cell phone.

thank,

Larry
