I contacted them on 12/19/09 and then Todd Jerry in their LA office got back with me on 12/21/09. With the holidays we didn't make much progress. If you are OK with the concept plan Option C, I can get them to put together a proposal. I will get back with them tomorrow. Tomorrow is a travel day or me to get back to LSJ.

Yes I have talked to Radinor's office. What I need from you is a rough architectural program on what components you want. What sq. ft. size? Kitchen space? Office? Etc.

Their office has 2 divisions: architecture & prefab. I think we would just want to their architectural office because Gary thinks he can construct it cheaper on site than prefab. I should be able to get a proposal from them quickly if you can get me a rough program.
