Dear Jeffrey,

I came back from vacation yesterday and although I loved everything, I rejected the center arm rest immediately.

We have already painted the two black attachment arms and the "exposed" black plastic xm radio remote tray to match the fabric.

Additionally, I did not like the covered kydex plastic "arm rest tab as it was good – but not great.

Instead, we came up with an idea to insert a thin layer magnet to the tab and the arm rest – its a small, yet awesome detail your gonna love.

The aircraft is going to look "spectacular"!

Sincerely,

Eric Roth
