Congratulations on taking the first step!

Dear jeff,

I am happy to welcome you to eHarmony. By registering, you have started on your way to a happy, successful relationship.

The next step is to complete the Relationship Questionnaire and immediately receive a free Personality Profile with insights into your relationship strengths, communication style and needs in a partner. Click here to log in to eHarmony's Web site and complete your questionnaire.

The depth of our Relationship Questionnaire is the key to eHarmony. It allows us to learn about you and match you in a deeply meaningful way. By taking the time to complete it, you'll enable us to connect you with singles who are highly compatible with your unique personality, values, goals and beliefs.

This matching goes much deeper than anything you've experienced before. It's why we produce more loving, lasting relationships than any other online service. I've seen thousands and thousands of people find the love of their life at eHarmony, and I'm passionate about helping you find that special person as well.

Everyone at eHarmony shares my commitment to your success. If you have any questions about the eHarmony process, our Customer Care group is always happy to help. Please visit our Help section.

My warmest wishes,

Dr. Neil Clark Warren
