At the start of Ada, Van rides to Ardis in a hack coach, which somehow turns into a caleche, then a "clockwork taxi"; but when he arrives, he gets off his horse. Boyd notices but can't explain. Much of Ada is in dream-form (parts in nightmare-form)--which is so clear, people look straight through & never see it. (The state of cog sci generally. To be a visionary, first you have to see what's 2 inches in front of yr nose, & that's the hard part.)
