Hey All!

[REDACTED]
My boss has already made the official announcement that when "high maintenance" is looked up in Webster's dictionary there's a picture of me!

My boss thinks I'm so bossy that it's actually him working for me, not the other way around!

Spending time with these 17 year olds who are potential [REDACTED] students have been so inspiring! I love my job and I now know what we are working for.

[REDACTED] is 100% by the Sheikh. The NYU president has on numerous occasions called the funding of [REDACTED] "the Sheikh's concubine money". Needless to say, our communication manager has his hands full...

The kids who came for [REDACTED], we're stalking them on Facebook to see what they thought of [REDACTED]...

[REDACTED] from New York brought their own camera crew and medical staff when they came to Abu Dhabi. When New Yorkers go on field trips they don't mess around!

I introduced myself to the President of [REDACTED] as the COO's little office troll. He loved it and gave me a big hug! I thought I would leave him surprised, but he left me surprised.

A colleague told me I look like Barbie! It was the biggest compliment I've received in a long time!

Since we're freaken [REDACTED] and funded with the Sheikh's concubine money, we got tickets for the whole office to Beyonce! She's performing the first night of the Formula 1 race. A four day event.

Beyonce was great! It was a 4-hr ordeal to get out to Yas Island where the Formula 1 is held, though.

Hope you all are well!

[REDACTED] :)
