1. The best place to track the ongoing events will be with the Receivers Reports to the Court. Bob should assign a paralegal to copy each filing, watch for each hearing. The Receiver will control the a/c privilege of the firm and will certainly assess and then likely disclose the extent, duration of the fraud on investors, sale of contingent fee cases. To the extent there is a parallel GJ investigation, the firm would disclose recs but it would be under the radar
2. I cannot answer when Edwards went with the Rothstein firm. He apparently brought the clients in? He at least had several from the 3771 Victim Rights challenge that he got from Cassell and the Victim Rights groups. I would surmise that the starting point was when he joined the firm (he may have used your case as an entree)
3. Again, a deposition of Edwards should be considered
