Please let me know what pieces you need from me to make a structure work with JPM.

- If you "pledge" large amount to an operation i run, will this allow the JPM to do this, since the $ gives it credibility inside and outside?
- Nobody has to know the $ pledge comes from you (to keep your identity completely private), correct?
- The operation will have family office characteristics, so there should be no problem that I run it?
- Additionally we can beef it up with big name advisory board?
