Hi...well Haloween was ok...my first one ever in NY..but too many ppl everywhere...
I don't really have much news...I'm just going to my french classes a lot and working out with a new trainer...cuz from boxing my arms and shoulders were getting big...and also my boxing trainer was in love with me and is a friend with richie....so there was this tention between them everytime they met...it wasn't a very nice situation, very uncomfortable for me....

And my brother is probably coming to visit me in a week for a week...and after I think I'm gonna take off to Paris cuz there will be holidays here so work will be slow...I might stay there for like 3 weeks...

And with Richie everything is great!!last week he lost his favorite hat so I next day I went to the store and got him shipped a new one from LA on the day after...he loved it of course....

How r u? How did u like [REDACTED] lips??
