Subject: LSJ Hammam - proceeding forward

Jeffrey:

For the past month we have done a fair amount of work adjusting the plan and some of the landscape around the building. Not being able to discuss the scheme holistically has been somewhat frustrating.

The drawings we last sent you, including the entry sequence, were based on the landscape architect's drawings. I can see that it would be important to get a sense of the siting and landscaping around the building, which would be the purview of the landscape designers. I feel that small adjustments on my part would be counterproductive at this stage.

I believe that for now I should stop working on the project until you are satisfied with the larger site moves and the landscape plan around the building. I would be happy to return to the project when you feel it productive for me to do so.

With kind regards,
Hasan

PS: Would you please settle my September invoice. Thanks.

hasan the entry sequence is inelegant, uninteresting and out of proportion, and scale to the island and the hammam .

Please find attached updated images and drawings for your consideration.
The site/landscape plans are based on Stephen's landscape drawings.

I believe that it would be most fruitful if we could actually meet to discuss the scheme and talk about the drawings. We also have a sketch-up model that we could bring around and manipulate with you.

Regards, Hasan
