Sorry for answering so late,

Unfortunately where I live here in London I have no internet access :(

I have to tell you that I like being here, I don't know if I wrote you that before...and soon, probably next year should try to change the domain I'm working in. I mean get a real job coz I'm not financially stabile at all. :(I attach you a few photos I took when I was site seeing in London and home with my parents!

I dreamed about you last night.... and [REDACTED] also :)

Big kisses
