Jeffrey-
see attached column and arch studies, showing variations in arch radii and column widths. I also included the stone column option.
Let me know what you think.

thanks

Hi Jeffrey-
I did not get the fax you mentioned- please have your assistant try this fax number at my house: [REDACTED].

I'm working on 3d options and will have views by tomorrow afternoon.

I still think the small precast columns should be for around the pool only, and that large stone columns similar to the office columns will look best on the master bedroom, I'll include that image as well

thanks
bob
