my roundtable last weekend. Went superbly. 30 folks from all over. I should have a website up shortly and a press release [REDACTED].

Here's another interesting person: <http://lazowska.cs.washington.edu/> He runs the eScience Institute at U of Washington. [REDACTED]

And I wanted to chastise you for making my hair so great, so that now I'm going to have to go back to [REDACTED] and endure the drain on my credit card.
Btw, the first beneficiary of the new hair was [REDACTED] with whom I had lunch the next day (hope I'm making you jealous... ;)). [REDACTED] about to benefit tonight.

Happy thanksgiving!!
