Yours said sat 30th, not mine. That date doesn't exist. You had the wrong information and got upset when I tried to correct it.

I am doing my best to make things better, what you do is come home and immediately pick on whatever you can find is wrong without acknowledging the positive change in the house. The house was disgusting and dirty after I was gone for a week with tampons in the living room, stains on tables and tissues and papers all over furniture, old food in the fridge, dirty socks on the living room floor, ugly little kitchen flowers... You would have to be blind not to see how much better it works already but yes I know it still needs a lot of work. It would be much nicer to say "[REDACTED], why don't you experiment with how to change things, why don't you try different foods, get different flowers, HAVE FUN with it. If it doesn't work out, you try something else" instead of looking over my shoulder like a sergeant and assuming everything I do is wrong before you even see it .. (Apple tv, [REDACTED] ticket)

Finding the right solution to everything from flowers, staff to sex will take some time and you can either have fun with it and play in the process or get annoyed about every 'ugly plant' and make the process unpleasant and painful. What do you think my intentions are, I am obviously trying to improve things. Your angry picking on me drives me crazy and definitely doesn't work as an aphrodisiac-coming home and first rolling your eyes at everything I had done and then telling me dana is on her way doesn't help the mood with or without boots.
