Hi - Dierdre's husband has hit on what could prove to be a huge advertising hit. Get's the online buyer at point of purchase - business plan attached. He's looking for a relatively small amount of funding -- let me know if you're interested.

How's everything? I'm in NC mountains and heading to NYC for most of Sept and Oct. Will get back to FL a couple of times and will call to visit. I did come by and leave a note.....
