Clear.

There's a family shareholder meeting this weekend to wrap up the first loan to the families . Have call with them on Sunday to identify best person to push this.

Now in Odessa - P factor so far 8/10. But tonight I hope for a score increase.

Spoke to German ministry of finance - view is that Oppenheim management caused the mess (probably +900m EUR required)

Would our solution involve management changes? Or would we work with existing management to save them + independence and have a structure that makes it secure for us despite weak management?
