Dear Jeffrey,

We continue to push ahead to find a future for FLYP.

Perhaps you could take a look at the PDF presentation we have produced, and give me some feedback.

What we need to secure enough time to find the right partner moving forward is actually a relatively small amount of money, and if found, it would quickly be leveraged by the support of several large potential investors.

But first, please take a look at the PDF and let me set up a time for a conversation between you, me, and my FLYP colleagues.

All best,

David
