Sarah,

I will be very glad to find a place for you on The Celebrity Apprentice. The more I think about it, the more sense it makes for you. You already live in New York. It's for charity and it rewards fun characters who are smart. You are all of those things and the promotional value to being on a network television series which is highly respected is immeasurable.

The cast flies into New York on October 13th.

First shoot day is October 18th and wrap is November 13th. Any contestant is free to leave the day after they finish.

This will be great promotion for you.

I have cc'd my co-executive producer Eden Gaha who will be able to answer any questions you might have.

By the way, I will also work with you on developing "DUCHESS FOR A DAY" and we can use Celebrity Apprentice as a launch pad to sell that series.

Thanks,

Mark
