Dear Peggy,

They allow for "illness" though not [REDACTED]. Let's find out what the properties have to say tomorrow and if for some reason they are not cooperative in postponing (which I highly doubt) then we will explore the insurance option further.

Thank you Peggy and have a good evening!

Cheers,
Stephanie.

Dear Peggy, Jeffrey & Gary,

I have spoken with the insurance company and unfortunately they do allow for cancellation due to any type of [REDACTED] or diagnosis.

I will contact all of the properties to see if we are able to apply any or all of the trip cost towards a future trip. I hope to have confirmation and terms for you in the morning.

Thank you and have a great afternoon!

Cheers,
Stephanie.

Dear Mattie,

I received this email from Miasha and wanted to know what she is referring to. Are you not able to make the trip? If not, perhaps it is for a reason that we can claim under your insurance policy?

Thank you in advance for clarifying and have a great day!

Cheers,
Stephanie.

Dear Miasha,

We need to process your visa in the next month. This can take 2 – 3 weeks to complete so please send along the following as soon as you are able so that we can start the process:

- * $70 per person payment (I will charge this to your visa card)
- * Kenya Visa Application - completed and signed (attached)
- * Your passport, valid for 6 months after your return, signed and with at least 2 blank visa pages
- * 2 passport photos

Thank you Miasha and have a great day!

Cheers,
Stephanie.
