Dear Jeffrey,

It took me about two months to answer your simple question as to whether I am fine. Please excuse the pathetic delay. I was simply in tumultuous knots over what to do and didn't know what to answer.

I am well thank you. I decided to keep the baby (I'm having a baby girl due on Christmas). I feel very good about it and am very excited but it was a gradual process. I was always a bit ambivalent about having children. In the end though, I have a wonderful friendship with [REDACTED] and I love him very much. I also have enough stability with him as well to feel confident about raising a child.

I think about you often and am SO GLAD that you will be out soon! I think this month no?

I will be in the US until the end of July and then am going to Sardinia for a couple of weeks and then to Greece. I will be back in the end of August.

Below is a sonogram of [REDACTED] (the baby's name!). It was taken at 16 weeks.

Let me know if I can do anything. I send a big hug,

XXOXOXOXO

[REDACTED]
