Jeffrey,

Jojo brought the Bentley in for the 3 year service and several other issues and I just got the report back from Bentley.

I managed to get them to do the service which would have cost about $ 3,000 for free since the warranty expired about 3 weeks ago.

The rest of the work is estimated at $ 8,188 plus tax.

The list of repairs are as follows which includes parts and labor:

Flatbed towing $ 201

Air conditioning leaking valves $ 545

Side Marker lights both are cracked $ 565

Roof antenna is cracked, replace and paint to match the car $ 807

Detail wheels to remove spots $ 150

Repair loose rear head console $ 155

Replace all brakes $ 3,185 they are at 5mm brand new they are at 9mm so these are almost half way worn out

Replace all tires which are all below spec $ 2,580

The car currently has 12,304 miles

If all repairs are done the car will be ready by 7/29

Shall go ahead with all repairs?

Thank you
