Jeff,

The name of the person with the organic garden is Dr Howard Resh ([REDACTED] B: [REDACTED]). He knows everything you need to know about how to run a sustainable farm. You will never have to buy produce again. I wanted to do this for the hotel in Turks and the development stalled but it is a great amenity.

Also, early next week I will send you the heat cushion phone information that doesn't hold water like had this morning.

It was great seeing you and talk to you over the weekend.
