What a pleasant surprise. Just this morning, I swear this is true, I was thinking of Marvin, of the Kreutzer-sonata we played together, of my foolishness not having contacted him any more.

I suppose he means 12-7 p.m. And I suppose by "call" he means a telephone conversation. I will be delighted. Since I move erratically between my home and the Max Planck-Institute, it might be useful to make a definite date one day ahead, either by e-mail or telephone: [REDACTED] (home) or [REDACTED] (office)

Most cordial greetings

Valentino
