I never suggested fees to oppenheim. Will keep pushing them.
Will need your instructions soon about "who we are" to present it properly to them (and similar conservatives players in the future). Will let you know when I next meet them, prob 2nd week of Sept.

the concept is not based on fees .. if oppenheim were to engage, us, to find a solution. we could have had four separate solutions, we would take a participation in either one, no up front fees , they can't resist , they have nothing to lose,, the other way is to have them lay out for you their biggest concerns,, if we find a way to save them money , we take a piece of the saving..s that is the best

After your legal clarity and when FL exodus is ready, i want to better understand your approach of "hire us" as used in your Oppenheim description.

There could be increasingly real business in an advisory/financing solution package in Germany, Switzerland, UK.

For "advisory" business with massive fees there could be Malaysia where the Minister of Finance is my friend and asked me for help/ideas.
