I am going to ride the horse tomorrow. The trainer (Judie) gave me a newspaper article about Christina Orr-Cahal - the former PB Norton Museum of Art director. Orr-Cahal was one of Judie's clients and she thought you might know her.

This is gm's email:

He looks v nice in the videos..you should ask her what she paid for the horse..(assume its a lie) you want to see his papers. What competitions has he done what has he won. I wonder if Wesley Clark knows Crosbie Saint..always worth asking JE. Larry V's daughter bought a horse that I helped with a little. Larry is going to give me the name of his vet..you just want to get the name of the vet that use..just to make sure it is not the same as Larry's..keep e posted

Hi, Ghislaine!

I hope you're doing well. I've been taking riding lessons here in Wellington and I found a horse that J is thinking about buying. Neither one of us knows enough about horses to know what questions to ask. Would you be able to send me a list of the right questions and any suggestions you may have?

I am sending you a video and some information about the horse.

SAINT is a warmblood Hanoverian

18.1 hands high

He was born in 1997.

His show name is Ravel (after the French composer)

His previous owner was Crosbie Saint who is a retired U.S. Army 4 star general who served as Commander in Chief, U.S. Army Europe/Commander, Central Army Group from 1988 to 1992. He was apparently a great rider and 'treated the horse as a soldier'.

Saint is scheduled to leave Florida on the 27th if he is not sold.

They told me the boarding costs here would be 1150/month which includes the stall, feeding, shaving, baths and day care. Vaccinations are cca 400yr, shoes teeth cleaning 150/month.

They are asking 80 but the lady who owns him just lost a job and can't afford to keep him so she is in a bad position and willing to negotiate. I have not met her but they are describing her as a 6' tall fat lady who just started riding when she first bought him.

He is a sweet horse. I rode him last week and he was very responsive and patient with me even when I made mistakes.

I will send you another video of him trotting, cantering and jumping.

Please let me know what you think.

Thank you.
