The a/c guy is going to apt Wednesday and I will speak to him then on site

About the horse. Sloan says she has never seen results like that and that's scary and she was national hunt champion for yrs. She says that the horse business is criminal that the mid range horse like this one is being killed and that that is a lot of money for a first horse and you a surely being ripped off. You need to hire a pro (she gave me the name and is going to send me th no. ) Of a trainer who can come and evaluate the horse and the rider - cost 2500 just for that! I will be coming to be in the next 3 weeks so can go and look myself and be involved and meet the guy Sloan recommends so she won't get ripped off by him too..
