Subject: Note from Henry [REDACTED] re Nancy [REDACTED]

To:

Last night, on Thursday, shortly after 8, Andrew's wife Nancy was at an event at the Museum of Modern Art about to start dinner when she fainted and could not initially be awakened.

She was brought to New York Hospital and admitted with a diagnosis of bleeding from an intracranial vessel. She was seen at the hospital by Dr. Thomas Nash and is under the care of Dr. Philip Stieg, Chief of Neurosurgery. She is being operated on this morning to clamp off a bleeding aneurysm.

Her boys Maxson and Jasper came to the hospital with Gloria and me. Andrew flew in from Los Angeles and got here by morning. She was alert enough to recognize him and talk to him and to Dr. Stieg. She knows what is happening to her, though of course she is now under an anesthetic.

The operation is currently in progress and is expected to take about four hours. I'll let you know what happens after she gets out of the operation.
