RUDOLPH W. GIULIANI ANNOUNCES STRATEGIC RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN GIULIANI SECURITY & SAFETY AND INVESTIGATIVE MANAGEMENT GROUP

NEW YORK, NY - Rudolph W. Giuliani announced today the formation of a strategic relationship between Giuliani Security & Safety LLC (GSS) and Investigative Management Group (IMG). Through this relationship, both companies will collaborate to broaden and expand the global investigative and security services they currently offer to private and public entities within the United States and around the world.

Mr. Giuliani stated: “Given the world’s growing security challenges, as well as the many financial vulnerabilities identified during the current economic crisis, I think it is the perfect time to join the remarkable resources and experience offered by these two proven companies. Both GSS and IMG have built strong reputations for providing critical assistance to companies confronting an ever-widening range of security and investigative needs, from asset security to internal investigations to corporate due diligence. Through this strategic relationship, GSS and IMG will further expand their global reach and capabilities, bringing truly essential services to companies and governments seeking to protect their people, assets and investments both here in the United States and throughout the international community.”

Mr. Giuliani further announced that while both companies offer a comprehensive range of security, investigative and emergency management services, the initial focus of this strategic relationship will be on five critical areas:

- Internal investigations, fraud prevention and investigative response
- Brand/IP protection, anti-counterfeiting strategies and solutions
- Corporate due diligence/background investigations
- Foreign Corrupt Practice Act: compliance strategies and monitoring
- Corporate security strategies and asset protection consulting

Pasquale J. D’Amuro, Chairman and CEO of GSS, stated “Now, more than ever, it is simply imperative that business leaders are properly informed about where and with whom they do business – the companies, the people and the locales. GSS strives to provide our clients with high quality, professional security and investigative services they can trust, in whatever region their business takes them. By working together with IMG, we are expanding our network and our ability to respond effectively to the growing needs of today’s global economy.”

Robert Strang, Chief Executive Officer of IMG, stated: “IMG is very excited by this opportunity to bring together the collective talents of our two distinguished firms. Ann Hayes, President of IMG, and I greatly value our long standing relationship with Mayor Giuliani, and look forward to working together with him, Pat D’Amuro and the entire GSS team in offering today’s business leaders the very best in security and investigative services.”

About Giuliani Security & Safety LLC

Giuliani Security & Safety is a global security, investigative and crisis management consulting firm. It is led by Rudolph W. Giuliani, former Mayor of the City of New York, and Pasquale J. D'Amuro whose 26 year career with the Federal Bureau of Investigation included service as the Executive Assistant Director for Counter Terrorism and Counter Intelligence and the Assistant Director in Charge of the New York Office.

The GSS team includes a broad cadre of domestic and international experts possessing a wide range of experience in law enforcement, crisis management, life safety, intelligence gathering, internal investigations, and forensic accounting.

GSS works collaboratively with clients to identify needs and tailors individual solutions that are comprehensive, exacting, and cost-effective. Clients include governments, global corporations, energy industries, law firms, financial institutions, and universities, among other organizations.

About Investigative Management Group

Investigative Management Group (IMG) has distinguished itself as one of the top providers of corporate security and intelligence gathering services, and is a leader in the high-end investigative market.

The firm's two principals, Robert Strang and Ann Hayes, have been business partners since 1989, when they founded Strang Hayes Consulting after successful careers in Federal law enforcement. Strang Hayes went on to become a leading corporate security firm and, in 2001, became part of SPX Corporation, a Fortune 500 company.

In 2003, Robert Strang and Ann Hayes started IMG, building on their success, reputation and track record of ensuring a culture and commitment to excellence. The firm has quickly garnered a high profile by providing a superior level of expertise and service to Fortune 500 companies, financial institutions, law firms, high-net-worth individuals and foreign governments.

IMG is able to offer its clients the gold standard in investigative work, but without the overhead and bureaucracy of the largest firms. This agility enables IMG to be flexible, move quickly, ensure confidentiality, and deliver valuable results within a reasonable budget.
